To Whom It May Concern:

At Risk Securway now SAR have provided security services to University Hospital Waterford since 2006. The company currently provide 530 security officer's hours and 40 Security Site Manager hours per week to University Hospital Waterford. In addition to these hours, SAR senior management are available at all times and regularly attend scheduled meetings with Hospital Management.

The security services provided by the company include, but are not limited to, static guard, CCTV monitoring and operation, access control, fire alarm response, car park management, patient escorting and supervision, key holding, cash escorting and crime prevention/follow up.

SAR Management have co operated fully with any security initiatives introduced by the Hospital. Their on site staff have responded in a swift and professional manner to all incidents which necessitated a security response.

SAR have approached the delivery of security services at University Hospital Waterford in a proactive and co operative manner and have cooperated and worked closely with both the Hospital Management and the nominated Hospital contact person for Security.
